In the year 1975: Gerald Ford is President; Krushchev Remembers; Fellini Remembers; Frank Robinson becomes manager of the Cleveland Indians; first class is 10c and rising; Ali beats Foreman in Zaire; and groceries will now be coded. The New Yorker and Paul Newman are 50; Brigitte and Sophia are 40; and Jack La Lanne is 60. Burton gets Elizabeth II; Calley is paroled; The Kent State Guardsmen are acquitted; and calves are slaughtered in Minnesota to protest prices. Grade school now offers philosophy classes; another Miss Universe resigns her crown; and while pornography comes to Portugal, an American woman is made a saint. Rabin, Caramanlis, Miki, Wilson, and Schmidt are in; Meir, Ioannides, Tanaka, Heath, and Brandt are out. Episcopal women are priests; Greece will not have a king; Ella Grasso wins Connecticut. Rhoda takes the subway to her wedding. Stonehouse disappears and then surfaces; another "last Japanese soldier of WWII" is found; and Charlie Chaplan is knighted. Bald is beautiful. The Marharannee sells her jewels; Prince Charles admires George III; a truce fails in Northern Ireland; Jane Alpert surrenders; Mr. Rooney Goes to Washington; Valery Giscard d'Estaing has dinner with the French people; and William E. Miller does American Express ads. There are doubts that the most famous portrait of George Washington is really by Gilbert Stuart and unemployment is up. Margaret Thatcher is Conservative Party Chief; Ford swims; The Pill is now a song. Shirley Temple Black is Ambassador to Ghana; D.W. Griffith is on stamp; and Bramer the cow out-forecasts

the weather computer. Vietnam falls. Thailand asks the U.S. to leave. The American Consul in Argentina is kidnapped and slain. Princess Christina of The Netherlands marries an American; a book on "cellulite" reaches the best seller lists; CBS pays Haldeman for an interview. Malpractice Insurance soars; No Fault Car Insurance is mandatory in Georgia; and "Who is Deep Throat?" McGovern goes to Cuba; Jack Nicklaus wins his fifth Masters; Ann Landers is divorced; and Venice, after all, may be saved. Rubber dams seem to be the answer.

1976 will be without: Anne Sexton, Spyridon Marinatos; Larry and Moe of the Three Stooges; Jacqueline Susann; Schneor Zalman Shazar; Charley Weaver; Ed Sullivan; Fredric March; Vittorio De Sica; Chiang Kai-shek; H.L. Hunt; U Thant; Charles Lindberg; Amy Vanderbilt; Jack Benny; Bob Montana, the creator of "Archie"; George Baker, the creator of "Sad Sack"; Ida Fuller, the first recipient of Social Security; Umm Kulthum; Aristotle Onassis; Walter Lippman; Avery Brundage; and Walter Brennan.

Upstairs, Downstairs; The Ascent of Man; A Moon for the Misbegotten; Breast Cancer; The Economy; Carmen; FiFi; Will Rogers; Gypsy; More Joy by Dr. Comfort; Plain Speaking Harry Truman; Born Free; Little House on the Prairie; Macon County Line; Pug Ravenel; Yasser Arafat; Rubies in Kenya; Crime Victim's Compensation; Juggernaut; Jaws; The Cay; Christie Love; Police Woman; Rocky's "gifts"; Evert + Connors; Evert – Connors; Wilbur Mills and Fanne Fox: the Argentine Firecracker becomes the Tidal Basin Bombshell; an official house for the Vice President; One Special Summer; WIN: Whip Inflation Now; The Dogs of War; Airport 1975; Earthquake in living Sensurround; The Towering Inferno; Duke + Kate in Rooster Cogburn; Nostalgia; The Big Look; T-shirts; toe socks and platforms; The Chelsea; The Little Prince; Jews and American Politics; Winegate Affair; Chad and the Yondo; Torture in Brazil; Snakes and Strychnine in Appalachia; Arnold Miller and the United Mine Workers; Panov and Ragozina; Woodward and Bernstein; Pioneer II and Jupiter; Juno and the Paycock; Lenny; The Clansman; South Africa; South Boston; Lord and Lady Lucan; Secretariat's son; Ethiopia; Big Daddy of Uganda; All Things Bright and Beautiful; The Wind and the Lion; Godfather II; Young Frankenstein; The Front Page; Linda Lovelace for President; Joni Mitchell; Maria Muldaur; Susan Ford; hoarding sugar; the B-1; Jericho; Amnesty?; Holy Year: Renewal and Reconciliation; the CIA and skeletons in the closet; AM America with Bill Beutel; Bermuda

Triangle; calculators; The Count of Monte Cristo; The Romantic Rebellion and Kenneth Clark; Myron; Freebie and the Bean; Fear of Flying; Karen Silkwood and Plutonium; Rebates and smaller cars; The Pacer and the Rabbit; Zsa Zsa and the sixth marriage; Jefferson and Sally Hennings; Legal gold; Clouds over Bunnyland: Playboy in trouble; The Smothers Brothers Show; Alice Doesn't Live Here Anymore; Jacques Brel is Alive and Well and Living in Paris; Brezhnev ill?; All the President's Men; The Mickey Mouse Club; Galileo; the Gold Dust Twins; the Skid Row Slasher; Before the Fall; Robert Redford; Depression; Recession; Bottoms out; Victoria Fyodorova; In Celebration; Neil Sedaka; Linda Ronstadt; Phoebe Snow; Elton John; Eagles; Carla Anderson Hills; Bye Bye Blackbirds in Kentucky; The Stepford Wives; Meatless Meals; World Food Conference; Abortion: the Edelin Shock waves; Khmer Rouge; Coronation in Nepal; art thefts in Italy; The Blue Bird; Love Among the Ruins; Pie throwing; At Long Last Love; A Doll's House; Funny Lady; The Great Waldo Pepper; Cher — Sonny; Cher +/- Gregg; Glomar Explorer and Howard Hughes = the great submarine snatch; Patty Hearst? ## Alpha Gamma Delta

This was Alpha Gamma Delta's fifth year at Armstrong. It was a year marked not only by continued monetary contributions to the sorority's national project, the rehabilitation of brain damaged children, but also by contributions to our local community and various campus activities. The now traditional Rummage sale, Georgia Day Booth, and car washes helped to raise the money for the national project while Gamma Rho Chapter sponsored the Epilepsy Bike-a-thon as its own special project of local benefit.

The chapter took honors for campus involvement by being the Intramural Champs, obtaining the Homecoming Spirit Award, and having two sisters win the titles of Greek Goddess and Miss Geechee.

Pi Kappa Alpha

Pi Kappa Alpha became a fraternity at Armstrong on November 15, 1970, formed from the then thirty-five year old Sigma Kappa Chi fraternity. Pike is proud of both its ritualistic traditions and its spirit of ambition and stresses initiative, development, and dedication.

Armstrong's Eta Mu Chapter of PiKA participated in or sponsored many activities this year. They held a Halloween Party for Bethesda boys, won the First Place trophy for their Homecoming float, boasted six student senators, one executive officer, and placed first in the overall intramural program, winning almost every major sport. Pike supported "Pack the Civic Center Night," the "Miller Pick-er-up Contest," and presented Ike Williams with the MVP Trophy for basketball.

PiKA counts a membership of 46 — the largest at Armstrong — with 20 "Little Sisters." Marie Connors represented Pike as their 1974-75 Sweetheart.

Sigma Kappa

Sigma Kappa marked its 100th anniversary on November 9, 1974. Armstrong's Epsilon Sigma Chapter not only recognized the event in the usual fashion of celebration, but also by participation in the national and international projects of Sigma Kappa. Thus financial contributions were made to the American Farm School in Greece to provide scholarships for women and to the Maine Sea coast Mission in honor of the sorority's founders.

On the community and more personal level, these sisters baked, sang, and entertained for elderly citizens and helped recruit volunteers in the Red Cross Blood Drive.

Pi Kappa Phi

Members also continued to strive toward achievement academically and within the community.

The brathers of Gamma Sigma Chapter were proud to have placed second in the intramural program and to have been the Overall Champions during Greek Week.

Phi Mu

Phi Mu, the second oldest national fraternity, was founded in Macon, Georgia in 1852. It was the first women's national fraternity founded at Armstrong.

This year Kappa Omicron Chapter supported the sorority's national project, Project Hope, by sponsoring a softball game in which they played against the disc jockeys of radio station WSGA. Members also entertained local citizens by taking their Washboard Band to nearby nursing homes.

The Faithful Sisters' enthusiasm for campus activities was shown in their titles of both Greek Week and Intramural Champions, the receiving of scholastic and service awards and honors, the election of a sister as Homecoming Queen, and their formal Carnation Ball held in April.

Sigma Nu

Sigma Nu, with its headquarters in Lexington, Virginia, is a national fraternity with over 1,200,000 initiated members and 185 chapters worldwide.

This year Theta Psi Chapter, Armstrong's youngest fraternity, distributed baskets to children in hospitals at Halloween, supported the Special Olympics for the Handicapped, sponsored bowling and cookouts for Bethesda boys, and donated toys and fruit to needy children.

In Armstrong activities Sigma Nu was the winner of the title of "Best Looking Chariot," the Greek Week Tug-of-war, and the award for the best sign at Homecoming. The fraternity also held parties at New Years and in the spring.

Phi Kappa Theta

Phi Kappa Theta, founded nationally in 1899, chartered Armstrong's Alpha Chi Chapter in 1972. Theta members strive toward the high ideals of leadership and brotherhood. They stress individuality and a desire to help others.

Theta brothers and Little Sisters participate in campus activities such as the Chaos program, the Student Senate, and intramural sports. They "like to party" and in January celebrate their chapter's birthday with an annual Birthday Banquet.

Executive Committee

 Glenn Arnsdorff .....President
 Beth Fogarty .....Secretary
 Nanci Futrell .....Treasurer
 Pat Talley .....Vice-President

The salaried officers of the Student Government Association, who comprise the Executive Committee, are elected each year by the entire student body (or by whatever percentage happens to vote). The president appoints members to his cabinet in order, hopefully, to better measure the will of the general student body.

Honor Council

The Honor Council is another part of the Student Government, designed to provide a means by which students accused of violating the Honor Code may have a hearing.

The council met only once this year, during Spring Quarter, over a minor matter which was dismissed.

INKWELL

The INKWELL, Armstrong's weekly newspaper, is financed by student activity funds and is therefore the primary means by which students are kept up-to-date on campus activities. However, "Racky," "Doanesbury," and "Der Zeitgeist," all lighter-toned features, seem to have been the paper's most popular articles this year.

Buccaneers

The Buccaneers are young women who promote public relations for Armstrong by serving as official hostesses for the college and for the Athletic Department in particular. Their activities are planned with the intention of encouraging student and community participation in campus programs. Special functions for the Buccaneers this year were their duties at the South Atlantic Basketball Conference and the Grand Opening of Georgetown.

SAE was reorganized this year after an absence of several years. The tremendous membership response from students planning to teach may have been due in part to the fact that teaching insurance is available from the organization for a minimal fee, but the activities of the group were interesting enough in themselves to encourage English and Psychology majors as well. Meetings were held once a month, presenting speakers on such topics as Montessori schools, behavior modification, and our local school system.

P.E. Majors Club

In this, its third year, the organization of physical education majors received its constitution and charter name. Alpha Sigma Chi meetings, held on the first Wednesday of each month, featured speakers and discussion on such topics as the effects on Armstrong's P.E. Department of the proposed merger with Savannah State and work within the school system after graduation. Although the group did not sponsor as many activities this year as last, those that were dealt with, such as finding jobs for members in summer camps, were successful.

The Task Force for the National Organization of Women was first established at Armstrong this year. With its goal being to "bring women into full . . . partnerships with men," N.O.W. sponsored several programs. Members distributed E.R.A. material and buttons and conducted a letter campaign urging state representatives to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment. Caral Dixan produced a children's musical, "Free To Be, You and Me," which was cosponsored by the Fine Arts Department. Meetings held with Athletic Director Bill Alexander to discuss the possibility of an intercollegiate athletic program for women brought little success, but similar discussions with Psychology Department officials looked more hopeful.

United Christians on Campus

UCC was one of the more active organizations on campus this year, although student response did not always live up to expectations. Seminars on such topics as "A Person's Worth," "The Church in Society," and "Death and Dying" and a concert by "Dust and Ashes" were sponsored by UCC. Spring Quarter they held a special supper to celebrate Passover and a retreat on "Human Sexuality." Throughout the year "Yuk" remained an open meeting group, probably best known for their impromptu concerts in the Old Student Center and in the campus square.

The Student Speech and Hearing Association provides learning experiences not offered in the formal course structure of Armstrong by giving students the opportunity to work with faculty members as well as with other college and university departments and local organizations interested in speech pathology, audiology, and the education of the acoustically handicapped.

Members of the group both participated in money raising cornwashes and attended the Georgia Speech and Hearing Association (GSHA) meeting at Jekyll Island during Spring Quarter.

Cheerleaders

Armstrong's cheerleaders are a group of men and women students that successfully encourages enthusiasm at athletic events. Most noted perhaps this year were their gymnastic endeavors at basketball games.

The cheerleaders also directed their energies toward raising money for the March of Dimes by sponsoring an Ugly Man Contest. Roger Webber was the lucky winner.

Armstrong's organization of the American Chemical Society was one of the most distinguished groups of the college this year. The ACS Lecture Series Featured medical personnel, criminologists, educators, and professionals from a variety of science fields besides those of pure and applied chemistry. The Used Text Store was expanded in both services offered and quarterly duration and a voluntary tutorial program to help freshman chemistry students was implemented this year. In recognition of these and other programs, Armstrong's chapter of the ACS was selected as one of the 40 Outstanding Chapters in a nationwide competition and awarded a prestigious Certificate of Merit.
